

Voice For The Horse Foundation Waiver ~ For Children's Writing Competition 2011

No purchase necessary. By participating in the 2011 Voice For The Horse Children's Writing Competition (the Contest), the Participant, as represented by his/her parent or legal guardian, hereby agrees that all of the work, including all writings (the Writings) and/or drawn pictures (the Artwork), or photographs the Participant submits in connection with the Contest, and all rights and interests therein and thereto including, without limitation, copyrights and goodwill, shall become the exclusive property of Voice For the Horse Foundation.

The Participant, as represented by his/her parent or legal guardian, hereby authorizes Voice For The Horse Foundation to use, alter, vary, publish and exploit such Writings, Artwork, and/or Photographs, along with the winner's name, city/province/state/country of residence, photograph and/or likeness for advertising purposes, or for any other purpose it sees fit, without further compensation, permission or notification.

The Participant, as represented by his/her parent or legal guardian, agrees to waive and hereby waives, unconditionally and irrevocably, any and all of the Participant's moral rights and rights of a similar nature which the Participant either now, or in the future, may have in such Writings and/or Artwork and/or photographs, in each jurisdiction throughout the world to the extent that such rights may be waived in each respective jurisdiction.

By entering the Contest, the winner releases and holds harmless Voice for the Horse Foundation and its advertising agencies, partners, employees, directors, officers and judges, from any and all liabilities that arise or which may arise in connection with the Contest or the prizes. The judges reserve the right to reject any submission that is plagiarized or which, in their sole discretion, they deem to be plagiarized,

All participants must have a parent or legal guardian sign and complete the information below.
